JUDGE MONTEREY CAMPBELL NAMED TO
BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ALICO, INC.

LaBelle, Fla. (March 2, 2001) - Ben Hill Griffin, III, chief executive officer and chairman of the board of Alico, Inc. (ALCO), announces the election of Judge Monterey Campbell to the board of directors of the LaBelle-based agribusiness company. Campbell's legal career includes serving on the Second District Court of Appeals of Florida from 1980 through the end of last year, and also serving as general counsel to the Florida Citrus Commission from 1969 to 1980. Upon retirement from the Second District Court of Appeals, he accepted the position of a senior judge on the court.

"Judge Campbell brings to the Alico board more than four decades of legal experience and a thorough understanding of the citrus industry," said Griffin. "Several members of our board had the opportunity to work with Judge Campbell during his tenure as general counsel for the Florida Citrus Commission, and we look forward to his leadership on the board."

Campbell is a third generation Floridian who grew up in Bartow. Upon graduation from the University of Florida Law School, he entered private practice and later served as city prosecutor for the city of Bartow and as chief trial assistant and advisor to the grand jury for the 10th Judicial Circuit. He has practiced before all the major commissions and administrative agencies of the state and before all levels of appellate courts. While on the Second District Court, Judge Campbell chaired the Florida Bar Judicial Administration, Selection, and Tenure Committee and the Florida Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on Local Rules. He also served as president of the Florida Conference of District Court of Appeal Judges.

Alico, Inc. is an agribusiness company, primarily engaged in the production of citrus, cattle, sugarcane, sod and forest products.
