TAX RULING RECEIVED

The Company announced today that it had received notice from attorneys for the Four Sisters Protectorate and Ben Hill Griffin, III that the final tax rulings necessary to implement the settlements of disputes that had previously arisen between beneficiaries of the Ben Hill Griffin, Jr. Revocable Intervivos Trust No. 1, (the "Trust"), have been received and there exist no material conditions to closing of the settlements between these parties which have been previously announced by the Company. Attorneys for the parties to the settlements have indicated that they expect the closing of the transactions contemplated by the settlements to occur as soon as documentation is finalized which they believe will occur before the end of March 2004 and could occur as early as three weeks from now. As previously announced by the Company, the closing of these settlements will result in a transfer of beneficial ownership of the shares of Alico currently controlled by Ben Hill Griffin, III, as the Trustee of the Trust to trusts to be formed for the benefit of Ben Hill Griffin, III's four sisters and their lineal descendants so as to cause control of Alico to shift from Ben Hill Griffin, III to the trustees of such trusts.
