CHANGE OF LEADERSHIP OFFICIAL AT ALICO, INC.

LABELLE, Fla. (February 26, 2004) - Alico Inc. (ALCO), an agribusiness company based in LaBelle, Florida, announced today that beneficial ownership of the shares of Alico, Inc. previously controlled by Ben Hill Griffin, III as Trustee of the Ben Hill Griffin Jr. Irrevocable Trust, has transferred to Atlantic Blue Trust, Inc., a corporation owned by his sisters and their lineal descendants. Upon the transfer of the beneficial ownership of these shares, Ben Hill Griffin III, resigned as Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and as a director, and Walker E. Blount Jr., Monterey Campbell III, Amy Gravina and K.E. Hartsaw resigned as directors and were replaced by five new directors.

Accordingly the reconfigured Alico Board of Directors consists of John R. Alexander, president and CEO and a director of Atlantic Blue Trust, Inc.; Richard C. Ackert, president and CEO of SouthTrust Bank, N.A. Southwest Florida and a continuing board member of Alico; Senator J.D. Alexander, District 17, Florida Senate, director of Atlantic Blue Trust, Inc. and partner, Scenic Highland Groves, Lake Wales, Florida; William L. Barton, P.E., president of Mitigation Land Partners Inc., Naples, Florida and a continuing board member of Alico; Larry Carter, CPA, and former president and COO of Conagra Foods- Food Ingredients Group, Omaha, Nebraska; W. Bernard Lester, continuing as president and chief operating officer, Alico, LaBelle, Florida; Stephen M. Mulready, former president and CEO, USA Operations of Royal and Sunalliance, Farmington, Connecticut; Thomas E. Oakley, president, Oakley Transport Inc., Lake Wales, Florida, and a continuing board member of Alico; and Representative Baxter G. Troutman, District 66, Florida House of Representatives, director of Atlantic Blue Trust, Inc. and CEO of Florida Labor Solutions, Inc., Frostproof, Florida. Senator Alexander is John R. Alexander's son and Representative Troutman is his nephew. At the meeting Mr. John R Alexander was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

"It has been a distinct privilege to serve the company's shareholders for the past four decades," said Ben Hill Griffin, III. "Alico has wonderful assets, a dedicated management team and a very bright future. I wish the new board great success."

Mr. Alexander, said, "We share the philosophy with the past management for the love of the land and our commitment to Florida agriculture. We look forward to working with Bernie Lester and the Alico staff to enhance shareholder value and commit to working diligently for the benefit of the shareholders. We plan to continue the company's involvement in the Central and Southwest Florida regions and its close association with Florida Gulf Coast University."

Bernie Lester has served Alico for the past 17 years, initially as executive vice president/COO, and for the past six years as president and COO. "The staff looks forward to working with the new board members to continue the company's progress."

Alico Inc. is an agribusiness company, primarily engaged in the production of citrus, cattle, sugarcane, sod and forest products.
