The Reporting Persons are filing this Amendment No. 1 together as a group pursuant to Rule 13d-1(k) (1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

In January 2000, the families of the four sisters of BHGIII, most of the members of whom are beneficiaries of a trust, entitled the Ben Hill Griffin, Jr. Revocable Intervivos Trust #1 (the "TRUST"), filed suit against BHGIII in Polk County, Florida Circuit Court (The Four Sisters Protectorate, et al v. Ben Hill Griffin, III, Trustee, Case No. GC-G-0054, Section 81)*, seeking to impose judicial sanctions, including his removal as Trustee of the Trust based on allegations of over-compensation and receipt of an illegal bonus. BHGIII, as trustee, vigorously defended the suit and, during pre-trial proceedings, obtained orders dismissing certain claims and striking others. Trial commenced on March 26, 2001. Following three full days of trial, the judge ordered the parties into mediation on the evening of March 28, 2001 and adjourned the trial pending completion of the mediation process.

* The party filing the suit was described as an informal joint venture comprised of the sisters of BHGIII and their families and referred to by its members as the "Four Sisters Protectorate" (the "FSP.") During all the phases of the litigation one or more individual members of the FSP stated consistently that they represented all of the Trust's beneficiaries who were also members of the FSP and carried on all mediated settlement negotiations on their behalf.

On March 29, 2001, after mediation, BHGIII and a representative of the FSP, joined by their respective counsel, executed a document entitled "SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT", in large part drafted by the court appointed mediator, which set forth the basic elements of a settlement of the suit, contingent upon several events, including Internal Revenue Service approval of the proposed transaction as a tax free split-off, and the Court's judicial termination of the Trust. The terms of settlement contained in this document were set out on two pages, and were not intended, nor were they sufficient, to resolve all specific items necessary to consummate a settlement of the suit. The Settlement Agreement provided that the shares of Alico stock then owned by BHG Investments would be utilized in the tax free split-off, along with other assets, as a means of allocating to the FSP assets approximating the value of their interests in BHGI, a holding company wholly owned by the Trust, BHGIII, the FSP and its members.

Although the Settlement Agreement provided that the transaction was to be closed on May 1, 2001, the parties were advised by their respective counsel that the Settlement Agreement could not be closed without prior receipt of the requested revenue ruling approving the contemplated tax free split-off, and that, by reason of the time involved with the preparation, filing and review of the ruling request, such ruling would likely not be forthcoming for many months. No party to the Settlement Agreement objected to that timetable or insisted that a closing of its terms occur on May 1, 2001.

Disagreements between the parties to the Settlement Agreement arose almost immediately following its execution concerning whether it was valid or enforceable. The bases for these disagreements included: (a) the Harris Family's** refusal to acknowledge that they were bound by the Settlement Agreement; (b) the inability of BHGIII and the representatives of the FSP to determine the quality and quantity of assets that were to be included in the tax free split-off; (c) the inadvisability, according to tax counsel, of the Trust termination required by the Settlement Agreement; and (d) the uncertainty of the steps required to close the Settlement Agreement.

On May 14, 2001, the Harris Family filed a motion with the Court seeking to have the Settlement Agreement set aside as invalid and unenforceable. This motion in turn caused further negotiation and mediation among the parties, which have not as of this date produced any agreement as to whether or how the Settlement Agreement should be consummated. As a result, BHGIII filed a motion to enforce the Settlement Agreement which is scheduled to be heard by the Court commencing Wednesday, October 3, 2001. At this hearing, the Court will be called upon to decide whether the Settlement Agreement is enforceable.
